

10 minutes for Peace

UNJPPI is very excited to invite you to a global synchronized meditation happening on Friday, Sept. 21st, International Day of Peace. UNJPPI has agreed to partner with this activity.

It's called "10 Minutes for Peace" and is being coordinated by Unifyre, a partner organization supporting collective action and social impact around the world. Look for the UNJPPI logo on the website.

Please check out the video at www.unifyre.com/#video, where you can also sign up.

Let's make this the largest group meditation on the planet!

It happens on Peace Day, (<https://internationaldayofpeace.org/>) during the World Week of Peace in Palestine and Israel. (see over).

This year's theme is

“Youth and Children: Raising Hope and Making Change”.

“Youth and children are the ones who suffer the most in conflicts and under occupation,” wrote Tveit.

Young people also hold the future of Palestine and Israel in their hands, reflected Tveit. “Today, too many children in Palestinian territories grow up in fear, poverty and hopelessness, caused by more than 50 years of occupation,” he wrote. “Too many youngsters lack access to proper education and can't find decent work.”

Challenges facing youth and children in Palestine-Israel conflict:

- Access to school
- Child arrest and detention
- Fear and trauma
- Access to employment

Hopes and Opportunities for youth as Peacemakers

- Healing and reconciliation - transform and heal their communities
- Culture and traditions - bring young people together
- Advancing peace through social justice - involving young people
